

Dr. Suncheol Gweon
President
Giga Korea Foundation

Dr. Suncheol Gweon joined the Giga Korea Foundation as a position of President in 2015. He received his MS and PhD in Electronic Engineering from Seoul National University, in 1985 and EE from Texas A&M University in 1990 respectively. He had been working for KT since 1991, and led the research on optical access network including a development of FLC (Fiber Loop Carrier) projects and broadband wireless project. He led the Network Engineering in charge of network planning and deployment. He was the Head of Network R&D Laboratory (2009), Network Strategy and Engineering (2004-2008), and Optical Transport (2003-2004) in KT. He served as Secretary of CEO office, and Group Synergy, Investment Management, and New Business Strategy in Corporate Center, KT in 2010-2014. He has been an adjunct professor of Korea University and Soongsil University since 2014.